DR. JOHN DESMOND AWARD

The Dr. John Desmond Award is presented annually to a Department of Anesthesia faculty member who is judged to be an outstanding clinical teacher of undergraduate students. An individual may receive this award only once in any ten year period.

Nomination criteria may include:

- a) Excellent teaching record over a period of at least three years
- b) Excellence in clinical teaching, lecturing, and tutoring
- c) Demonstrated interest and activity to improve teaching
- d) Demonstrated interest in helping students to learn
- e) Teaching innovations designed to improve learning
- f) Involvement in educational research
- g) Active involvement in education committees and/or administration

Faculty members in the Department of Anesthesia and medical students are invited to nominate candidates. Medical students wishing assistance in a nomination should contact their site coordinator.

Nomination packages must include:

- A letter of nomination signed by at least four (4) faculty members and one (1) student
- One (not more) additional letter of recommendation signed by one or more students
- If nominated for teaching, copies of teaching evaluations from the past three years
- If nominated for innovation or research, evidence of achievement.
- A copy of the candidate's Curriculum Vitae

NOTE: The Education Council is the selection panel for awards and members may not contribute to nominations and are not eligible for nomination. They are the Department Chair; the Vice-Chair, Education; Directors of the undergraduate program, fellowships, continuing education, and faculty development; and Directors of the residency programs in anesthesia, family practice anesthesia, and pain medicine.
