UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

New Faculty Teaching Excellence Award

This award is given by the UT Department of Anesthesia Alumni Association.

This award is to recognize a full or part-time faculty member of the Department of Anesthesia within the first three (3) years of appointment who has been nominated by the department's faculty, fellows, or residents as an outstanding teacher or mentor.

Nomination criteria include excellent clinical skills and:

- a. demonstration of exemplary teaching in the fields of anesthesia, pain medicine or critical care medicine.
- b. demonstration of courtesy, compassion, personal commitment, and an overall dedication to the education and advancement of fellows, residents, and students.

Members of the Department of Anesthesia (faculty, fellows and/or residents) are invited to nominate candidates. For assistance in a nomination, please contact the hospital department chief or site coordinator.

Nomination packages must include:

- A nomination letter signed by four (4) faculty members plus two (2) trainees (fellows, residents, or students in anesthesia or critical care medicine).
- Up to three additional letters of recommendation from peers or trainees (within or outside of the department or specialty)
- Teaching evaluation data from at least one year
- The candidate's Curriculum Vitae

NOTE: The Education Council is the selection panel for awards and members may not contribute to nominations and are not eligible for nomination. They are the Department Chair; the Vice-Chair, Education; Directors of the undergraduate program, fellowships, continuing education, and faculty development; and Directors of the residency programs in anesthesia, family practice anesthesia, and pain medicine.

Deadline for Nominations: October 13, 2017
